

The background of the advertisement is a close-up photograph of stacked lumber. The wood is a warm, golden-brown color, and the stacks are held together by metal spacers. The lighting is soft, highlighting the texture of the wood. In the foreground, a single board of wood is shown in sharp focus, with the words "MADE IN THE USA" printed on it in a blue, serif font. A red diagonal banner cuts across the top left corner, containing the company logo and product name.
