

The background of the advertisement is a photograph of a lumber yard. In the foreground, a large, thick piece of white oak lumber is shown, with the words "MADE IN THE USA" stamped in blue ink across its width. Behind it, numerous stacks of similar lumber are visible, held together by metal bands. The lighting is warm, highlighting the natural grain and texture of the wood. A red diagonal graphic element cuts across the top left corner, framing the logo and the product name.
